standard, ISO, CEN, INSPIRE, web services, eGoV, catalogues, OGC, Public Sector Information,
cadastral data, metadata,
Land Cover Classification, Ubiquitous GI, Open, regional, national, SDI, location based,

Hosted by WINFO

TC 287 Geographic Information

European Commitee for Standardization
Comité Européen de Normalisation
Europäisches Komitee für Normung

Sponsored by

Interoperability Workshop

Monday 4 June 2007 Milano, Italia

Ente Nazionale di Unificazione, Via Sannio 2, Milano

AGENDA Morning Session

12:40

Lunch

Benvenuti a Milano!

AGENDA Afternoon Session

08:00	Registration	Welcome to Milano and the Interopera-	13:40	Implementing eGovernment in Italy Luigi Zanella, CORE Soluzioni Informatiche
08:45	Welcome and introduction Hans Knoop and Wojciech Pachelski, Co-chairs of Advisory Group on Outreach	bility Workshop hosted by UNINFO at the new UNI head-quarters. This leaflet gives you the agenda	14:10	National metadata catalogue and eGovernment services model Elettra Cappadozzi, CNIPA
09:15	Development of technical implement- ing rules for the INSPIRE Directive Paul Smits, JRC	for the day and shows you where the meeting will be held. We are pleased to welcome you to what should prove to be	14:40	Technological factors supporting SDIs and eGovernment implementation
09:35	Advancing interoperability within the HMA Project	an informative Workshop.		Gianni Campanile, ESRI Italia
10.00	Pier Giorgio Marchetti, ESA	The morning will focus on Spatial Data Infrastructures. Several Italian regional	15:00	eGovernment services of the City of Milano
10:00	Building an SDI: The Benefits of Open Standards Guenther Pichler, ESRI	offices will explain what they are under- taking in their area. Among the presenta- tions there will be a talk on the Develop- ment of the technical implementing rules		Piero Bonapace, Comune di Milano for the INSPIRE Directive. This Directive came into force last month and over the coming years we will see the effect of it	15:20	Coffee break
10:20	Coffee break	rolling out across Europe.	15:40	Releasing GI from its ivory tower (UBGI) John Herring, Oracle
10:40	Regional SDI interoperability actions and strategies	The afternoon will move towards eGovern-		oom riching, Cracic
	Marco Panebianco, Regione Lombardia	ment including a presentation on Ubiqui- tous Geographic Information (UBGI); mak- ing GI more accessible to everyone. The	16:30	References and best practices for SDI and eGovernment
11:10	Regional SDI implementation: design and construction aspects	Comune di Milano will demonstrate what they are achieving in making government		Claudio Mingrino, Intergraph Europe
	Mauro Salvemini, Regione Sardegna	accessible. This follows a talk on the Ital- ian national metadata catalogue and eGovernment services model.	17:00	Discussion and conclusions
11.40	Metadata and ordering services Marco Li Pera, Regione Emilia-Romagna
12:10	Cadastral data sharing, web services and applications deployment Giovanni Ciardi, SIGMA TER	Lunch, coffee and snacks will be made available during the break periods to everyone who has registered for the Workshop.	17:30	Closure
		Enjoy the day!		